Supporting and Protecting our Members

Privacy Statement

The Saanich Peninsula Arts and Crafts Society (SPAC) is dedicated to protecting any personal information collected as part of your membership with us. We do not share your personal information with any third party except if required to do so by law.

As our mission is dedicated to offering promotion, support, education, marketing and social events to our members, by choosing to become a member and participating in SPAC sponsored activities, you are consenting to:

- Having your name, address and contact information, if applicable, published in a membership list used only for the purpose of SPAC communications and our e-newsletter – Art Chat.
- Having any images of your artwork and/or yourself taken at SPAC-sponsored activities published in Art Chat, included in the marketing of an event or on our website to promote the benefits of membership.

As we greatly respect an individual's right to privacy, if you do not wish to have your contact information included in the membership list or do not agree to have images of your artwork or you published, it is important that you check the appropriate statements on your membership form. Although your position will be recorded, due to the number of SPAC members, we ask that members make it known to any photographer at the beginning of an event/activity that they do not wish to have an image taken of their work or themselves.

Anti-Harassment, Bullying and Discrimination Policy

At the Saanich Peninsula Arts and Crafts Society (SPAC), we believe that art is a universal language that can bring people together in equality, compassion and mutual respect.

As an arts group for the Saanich Peninsula and surrounding communities, we are committed to providing an inclusive, supportive, and welcoming environment free of harassment. We stand against intolerance, discrimination, and bullying and embrace the shared responsibility to create a safe space dedicated to listening, learning, and sharing in an inclusive environment for all. We strive to build a group where everyone belongs regardless of their age, gender, race, class, religion, ethnicity, ability, language or sexual orientation. All are welcome.

Contravention of this policy may, at the discretion of the Board, result in disciplinary actions up to and including revocation of membership and/or dismissal from positions within SPAC.

Information requested on this form is used expressly by the Saanich Peninsula Arts and Crafts Society for the purposes of correspondence and for delivery of the Art Chat newsletter and the SPAC Membership List.

This information shall not be shared by SPAC Members with any other individuals or organizations.
